

J. L. HARPER.

APRIL 6, 1860.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. FLORENCE, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom were referred the claim and petition of J. L. Harper, an invalid pensioner, for an increase of his pension, report:

That they have examined the proofs and papers transmitted from the Pension department, and find that the petitioner was placed on the pension rolls on the 6th day of November, 1848, at $6 per month, to commence on the 11th day of January, 1847, for three-fourths disability. The petitioner does not show any increased disability, alleging only advanced age and poverty. Your committee are very reluctantly compelled to reject the prayer of the petitioner, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the petition.

J. A. HARPER.

June 6, 1859.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. FORTNEY, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom were referred the claim and petition of J. A. Harper, an invalid pensioner, for an increase of his pension, report:

That they have examined the proofs and papers transmitted from the Pension Department, and find that the pension was placed on the pension roll on the 6th day of November, 1848, at $2 per month, to commence on the 11th day of January, 1847, for three months disability. The pensioner does not show any increased disability, alleging only advanced age and poverty. Your committee are very reluctantly compelled to reject the prayer of the pensioner, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the petition.
